- III. The Protected Disclosure should be factual and should not be speculative. It should contain specific information so as to allow the proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.

- IV. The identity of Whistle Blower shall be disclosed. However, anonymous disclosures will also be entertained. In case, of anonymous disclosure, such Whistle Blower may not be able to sought protection under this policy or appear for any personal hearing.

X. Procedures when Protected Disclosure are received

- a) Any Protected Disclosure that is made directly to the Whistle Blower Redressal Head, whether openly, confidentially or anonymously, shall be promptly reported to the Whistle Blower Committee or Analogous Body, as stated in Clause IX(A). On case-to-case basis, Whistle Blower Redressal Head may obtain guidance of the Committee.

- b) Each such Protected Disclosure forwarded to the Analogous Body or Whistle Blower Committee as the case may be, shall be reviewed by them, who may, in their discretion, consult with any member of Management who may have appropriate expertise to assist the Whistle Blower Committee or Analogous Body in connection with its review.
- I. If the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body determines that Management should investigate the Protected Disclosure, the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body will notify the Whistle Blower Redressal Head. Management shall thereafter promptly investigate the Protected Disclosure and shall report the results of its investigation to the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body. Management shall be free in its discretion to engage outside auditors, counsel or other experts to assist in the investigation and in the analysis of results.
- II. If the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body determines that it should investigate the Protected Disclosure, the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body shall promptly determine what professional assistance, if any, may need in order to conduct the investigation. The Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body shall be free in its discretion to engage, at the expense of the Company, outside auditors, counsel or other experts to assist in the investigation and in the analysis of results.
- III. If any member of the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body has a conflict of interest in any given case, then he/she should recuse himself/herself and the other members of the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body should deal with the matter on hand.

XI. Investigation

- a) The decision to conduct an investigation taken by the Whistle Blower Committee or Analogous Body is by itself not an accusation and is to be treated as a neutral fact-finding process. The outcome of the investigation may not support the conclusion of Whistle Blower that an improper or unethical act was committed.
- b) The identity of a Subject will be kept confidential to the extent possible given the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.
- c) Subjects will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and be given opportunities for providing their inputs at the appropriate time during the investigation.
- d) Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the functionaries under the Policy, Management or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation will not compromise self-incrimination protections available under the applicable laws.
- e) Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the members of the Whistle Blower Committee and/or the Whistle Blower and/or Analogous Body. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.

- f) Subjects have a responsibility not to interfere with the investigation. Evidence shall not be withheld, destroyed or tampered with, and witnesses shall not be influenced, coached, threatened or intimidated by the Subjects.
- g) Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.
- h) Subjects have a right to be informed of the outcome of the investigation.
- i) The investigation shall be completed normally within 45 days of receipt of the Protected Disclosure, unless the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body determines that more time is needed.

XII. Protection of Whistle Blowers

- a) Consistent with the policies of the Company, none of the Board of Directors, the Whistle Blower Committee, Analogous Body or any other committee of the Board of Directors or any other person or group shall retaliate, or tolerate any retaliation directly or indirectly, against anyone who, in good faith, makes a Protected Disclosure or provides assistance to the Whistle Blower Committee or Analogous Body or any other person or group, including any governmental, regulatory or law, enforcement body, investigating Protected Disclosure. Unless compelled by judicial or other legal or regulatory process or as necessary to fully investigate a particular matter, the Whistle Blower Committee or Analogous Body shall not reveal the identity of any person who makes Protected Disclosure and who asks that his or her identity as the person who made such Protected Disclosure remain confidential and shall not make any effort, or tolerate any effort made by any other person or group, to ascertain the identity of any person who makes Protected Disclosure anonymously.
- b) Furthermore, the Company shall not enforce any confidentiality agreement that prohibits a party to such agreement from reporting possible violations of any local law or regulation to any governmental agency or entity or making other disclosures to the extent protected under the whistle Blower provisions of the local Indian laws or regulation (or comparable laws or regulations that similarly prohibit the impediment of such protected disclosure). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company does not authorize the waiver of (or the disclosure of information covered by) the attorney-client privilege or work product protection or any other privilege or protection belonging to the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law.

XIII. Investigators

- a) Investigators are required to conduct a process towards fact-finding and analysis. Investigators shall derive their authority and access rights from the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body when acting within the course and scope of their investigation.
- b) Technical and other resources may be drawn upon as necessary to augment the investigation. All

Investigators shall be independent and unbiased both in fact and as perceived. Investigators have a duty of fairness, objectivity, thoroughness, ethical behavior, and observance of legal and professional standards.

- c) Investigations will be launched only after a preliminary review which establishes that:
- i. the alleged act may constitute an improper or unethical activity or conduct, and
 - ii. either the allegation is supported by information specific enough to be investigated or matters that do not meet this standard may be worthy of management review, but investigation itself should not be undertaken as an investigation of an improper or unethical activity.

XIV. Decision of the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body

If an investigation leads the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body to conclude that an improper or unethical act has been committed, the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body shall direct Management to take such disciplinary or corrective action against the Subject as they deem fit. It is clarified that any disciplinary or corrective action initiated against the Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation pursuant to this Policy shall adhere to the applicable personnel or staff conduct and disciplinary procedures. The decision of the Whistle Blower Committee shall be final in respect of the Protected Disclosure.

XV. Reporting by the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body

The Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body shall submit a report to Board on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosure referred to the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body since the last report together with the results of investigations, if any, unless the Whistle Blower Committee / Analogous Body determines that disclosing such information to Board will prejudice the on-going investigation of any Protected Disclosure.

XVI. Retention of Documents

The Whistle Blower Committee shall retain for a period of seven years all records relating to any Protected Disclosure and the investigation thereof.

XVII. Policy Review & Amendments

The Board may review this Policy at least every year and make amendments from time to time, as may be deemed necessary.
